Case #: 03CR80810-1

Honorable: Chief Judge Gerald E. Rosen

v.

Ahmad Musa Jebril

URGENT MOTION TO ALLOW OUT-OF-COUNTRY TRAVEL

Comes now, defendant, AHMAD JEBRIL, and hereby requests the Court's permission to travel out of state to Mecca, Saudi Arabia as detailed below to accompany my sister in her pilgrimage to Mecca.

In support of this motion I would like to state the following grounds:

1. I was found guilty after a trial and sentenced to prison.
 2. I subsequently complete the period of incarceration and currently reside with family in Dearborn, Michigan.
 3. I was released on 3/30/2012. Six months prior to that I was released to a halfway house and early house release.
 4. My supervised release is for the term of three years. Which makes me over halfway through my term.
 5. I seek permission to travel to Mecca, Saudi Arabia and will need to obtain a passport.
 6. The reason for the travel is based on a request from my sister who intends on performing pilgrimage to Makkah, Saudi Arabia, known as Umrah.
- Islamically she adopts the more common opinion that a women is obligated to have a close male relative to accompany her on the trip.(See exhibit #2)

Chapter 179

Prohibiting Woman from Traveling Alone

989. Abu Hurairah (May Allah be pleased with him) reported: The Messenger of Allah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said, "It is not permissible for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to make a journey of one day and night unless she is accompanied by a Mahram (husband or any other relative to whom she is prohibited to marry)." [Al-Bukhari and Muslim].

Commentary: This Hadith offers four points. First, it mentions a twenty-four hour journey. 'Ulama', therefore, say that the time limit matters little and the real point is the length of distance to be called journey. A woman is not allowed to travel unless she is accompanied by her husband or a Mahram.

Second, Hajj is obligatory on her provided she has no financial problem. If a woman has no husband or Mahram, Hajj is not obligatory on her. Neither can she go for Hajj with a group of women, whether for Hajj or any other purpose.

Third, the term Mahram, apart from husband, applies to all of her male siblings whom she cannot marry; these include the father, the son, the brother, the nephew, the son-in-law and the foster-father. She cannot travel with anybody but with any of these.

Fourth, when she goes out, she should wear a Jilbab (an outer gown) dress so that no part of her body should be visible. Moreover, perfume must not be used by her, wearing perfume in public by women is tantamount to fornication, nor should the jingling of her ornaments be audible to others.

990. Ibn 'Abbas (May Allah be pleased with them) reported: The Prophet (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said, "No man must not be alone with a woman except in the presence of her (Mahram). No woman should travel except in company of a (Mahram)." A man said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have been enrolled for such and such expedition, and my wife left for Hajj." He (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said to him, "Go and perform Hajj with your wife." [Al-Bukhari and Muslim].

Commentary: This Hadith proves that under no circumstance woman may travel alone. The Shari'ah strictly bans a meeting of this kind between two opposite sexes. Even if nothing objectionable happens, a mischievous person may exploit this situation and talk about them slanderously. Families disregardful of Hijab provide instances of illicit relationship between a man and a woman related to each other.
